Enrich yourself. Enrich your classroom.
I am now able to infuse this new knowledge and experience into my teaching.

Last summer, Katie was a part of our annual ArtsWeek program. During ArtsWeek, both arts specialists and creative educators in all subjects can explore teaching methods and projects that cross subject boundaries. Katie took a mural arts course that included English teachers, arts specialists and general elementary teachers — all working together. This experience — like many in our program — connects literacy, sociology and history and provides an understanding of process and materials in ways that can engage all types of learners.

Join us as we find connections and inspirations for you, your colleagues and your students — from jazz music and primary sources to the Works Progress Administration and the print; from challenging gifted students to bringing the latest technology tools to students with disabilities; from taking one summer course to a focused certificate program or a Master of Education in Educational Program Design. We have the options to meet your needs and advance your teaching.

Master’s Degree and Graduate Certificate Programs for Educators

Because Teaching is an Art.

The University of the Arts has a long tradition of innovation and creativity. Great teachers inspire students to think creatively in all subjects. For years, our graduate courses for educators have won the praise of teachers and the endorsement and support of school administrators. Now, they are part of our unique master’s degree in Educational Program Design. A total of 30 credits, this degree builds practical and innovative knowledge and skills in five core courses, plus five courses in a concentration area of your choice. Concentrations can be taken as a stand-alone graduate certificate for individuals not seeking a master’s degree.

Serving and subject teachers, our programs are flexible — meeting your needs your way. Taught by faculty of the highest professional standing and experience, we offer online, hybrid, and face-to-face classes and intensive summer programs. Our courses are offered in multiple locations throughout the greater Philadelphia area. We understand the challenges you’re facing, and we’re here to support what is being required of you. These new programs provide you with the individual attention and caring touch that mark every learning experience at the University of the Arts.

An MEd from UArts. Because Teaching is an Art.

Apply now to begin in June 2013!

Up to six credits of previous graduate coursework may be reviewed for possible transfer into the MEd Educational Program Design major. Up to three credits of previous graduate coursework may be reviewed for possible transfer into the graduate certificate programs. Visit cs.uarts.edu/MEd for complete policy details as well as application costs and frequently asked questions.
MEd Core Course Requirements

Assessment Design + Evaluation, 3.0 credits
The push toward demonstrating proficiency in meeting academic standards has made the ability to accurately evaluate student understanding critical for teachers. In Assessment Design + Evaluation, participants learn how to effectively assess how well students are learning through the integration of authentic assessment. Educators learn how to transform the process of teaching and learning into measureable outcomes achievable by all students.

Curriculum Design, 3.0 credits
Understanding curriculum design is critical to meeting the needs of all students. Insuring that all students understand what they are asked to learn is the role of a classroom teacher and the goal of effective learning practices. In Curriculum Design, students explore contemporary and technological considerations for curriculum design, curriculum accessibility and enhancements, and the role of standards in curriculum design.

Instructional Design, 3.0 credits
The most effective classroom instruction utilizes strategies that are formulated from research-based best practices and take into account knowing when to use them and with whom. Instructional Design examines the various components of the teaching process and the effects of instruction on student learning. Basic theories of instructional design, along with research-based instructional strategies, guide the student in developing instructional practices designed to complement the areas of curriculum and assessment.

Designing 21st Century Learning Environments, 3.0 credits
In order to be a successful educator in the 21st century and beyond, teachers and school systems must understand the dynamic environment they are preparing students for both now and in the future. Designing 21st Century Learning Environments explores the many aspects of what is needed to create and sustain learning environments that align with the times. The key areas of content and assessment, program structures, technology, media literacy, globalization, sustainability and habits of mind will be explored. While not specifically a technology course, this class examines the unique challenges and opportunities technology brings to the design of teaching and learning environments. Collaboration, accessibility, motivation, and authentic learning are all highlighted.

Educational Program Design Capstone Research Project, 3.0 credits
The Capstone serves as the culminating course in the MEd degree. It is comprehensive in nature and is designed to demonstrate students’ mastery of educational theory and practice in Educational Program Design. Through this course, educators integrate their MEd and concentration coursework through the creation of a research paper, research project, or curriculum unit. The Capstone course provides students with the opportunity to demonstrate their mastery of Educational Program Design through the creation of a comprehensive project reflective of their understanding and ability to apply the knowledge acquired throughout their coursework. The final project will include the (1) selection and development of a project plan (proposal); (2) literature review and analysis related to the project topic with the subsequent submission of both the literature review and full bibliography; and (3) submission of the final project.
In addition to the core requirements, MEd students select one concentration area to complete a total of 30 credits. Concentrations can be taken as a stand-alone certificate for individuals not seeking a master’s degree.

Concentrations/certificates are 5 courses (15 credits) in one of the following areas:

- Educational Technology – Every child in every classroom, every teacher in every school, and every person in every community is affected by educational technology. Educational technology enables students to analyze, synthesize and evaluate information, and express ideas in compelling ways that will prepare them for the demands of the 21st century. Learn to integrate technology into teaching and learning, coordinate technology, manage technological resources, and explore the benefits of technology for instruction. Help students create digital projects that fulfill curricular needs and learn to integrate technology as an effective teaching tool.

- Inclusion – Student diversity is one of the major features that characterize classrooms today. Teachers are expected to educate and develop proficiencies across diverse populations of students including those with developmental and learning disabilities; sensory challenges; and a wide range of cultural, ethnic, racial, gender, socio-economic, and primary language backgrounds. Learn how to best educate all students, regardless of the nature of diversity or special need.

- Literacy – Literacy is the foundation for student achievement. The most effective teachers integrate literacy-based learning experiences into their classrooms with the goal of empowering students to learn and critically think across all subjects. Learn effective ways to help students become better readers, writers, communicators, and learners of standards-based curriculum across all content areas through traditional and creative forms.

- Museum + Primary Sources – Optimizing the potential for students to become lifelong learners and contributors to society are the goals of every educator. Establishing a curriculum that integrates learning within informal environments and traditional educational settings is one path to reaching this goal. Learn how to develop the skills to research, analyze and integrate museum content, artifacts, and primary sources into units of instruction, helping students to better understand the world and their place in it.

- The Arts – Current neuroscience and cognitive science research establishes that arts education can help boost test scores across disciplines and lend support for the need for arts in schools. A substantive arts education includes comprehensive experiences in the visual and performing arts. Learn how the process of creating can provide learning and innovation skills such as creativity, critical thinking, problem solving, communication, and collaboration. This concentration is designed for K-12 teachers in all subjects.

- TI:ME – This program is offered in partnership with Soundtree and the Technology Institute for Music Educators (TI:ME), a Pennsylvania nonprofit corporation that serves to assist music educators in applying technology to improve teaching and learning in music. These courses fulfill part of the requirements for the Technology Institute for Music Educators certification. Learn about the variety of systems for educators designed to integrate musical instruments, audio components, video production tools, computers and software that can be used to support music curriculum.
Application Requirements for MEd + Graduate Certificate Programs

- Submission of a completed graduate application form, available at our website
- Nonrefundable application fee of $60 to be paid by check, money order, or credit card
- Official transcripts sent directly from each undergraduate and graduate school(s) attended
- A statement of applicant’s academic and professional goals (approximately two pages long)
- A resume relevant to academic and professional experience
- Three current letters of recommendation (not required for graduate certificate applicants)
- GRE scores are not required, but they may be included with application

NOTE: These programs do not lead to PA Dept of Education state teacher certification required for entry into most public schools. These programs are designed for K-12 in-service teachers. Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis. Priority deadline of May 1, 2013 to begin in Summer 2013. Applications may be considered after this deadline if space permits.

Matriculated + Non-Matriculated Programs

Matriculated programs earn students an official credential in their chosen area of study from the University of the Arts. These programs require official application and acceptance before registration is permitted. Matriculated program options include the Master of Education in Educational Program Design (EDPD) and graduate certificates in the areas of Educational Technology (ETEC), Inclusion (INCL), Literacy (LITY), Museum + Primary Resources (PRES and UTPS), Technology Institute for Music Educators (MTEC), and The Arts (VPAS).

Students may elect to enroll in some of the same course options available to matriculated students without officially enrolling in either the MEd or graduate certificate programs. Students who elect to do so are considered non-matriculated and these courses are designated with an “NM” in the course number.

Additionally, the Professional Institute for Educators continues to offer courses that serve strictly as professional development opportunities, which earn the student graduate credits but cannot be applied toward a matriculated degree or certificate program. These courses are designated with an “ED” in the course title. Please note that application requirements, prerequisite restrictions, and tuition rates do vary between program and course options.

Please contact us at pie@uarts.edu or 215.717.6092 to discuss which option is best for you.
Frequently Asked Questions

How do I know which program is best for me?
The MEd in Educational Program Design is recommended for K-12 educators who have yet to earn their master’s degree and are seeking graduate-level instruction about innovative teaching methods that focus on both theory and real-world practice. For those who do not wish to earn a master’s degree, we recommend the graduate certificates. Selecting the right option will also depend on one’s specific interests and goals. To schedule an appointment for one-on-one advising, please contact us at 215.717.6092 or email pie@uarts.edu.

How long does it take to complete an MEd degree or certificate program?
The MEd or a certificate program can take two to three years to complete depending on the particular program and the number of courses completed each semester.

When are classes typically offered? Can I take classes year-round?
Yes, MEd and graduate certificate classes are offered year-round during each of the Fall, Spring and Summer semesters. UArts offers online, hybrid, face-to-face, and intensive summer classes in multiple locations throughout the Philadelphia region.

What is the difference between concentrations within the MEd program and graduate certificates?
Content is the same for both the MEd concentrations and graduate certificates. For the MEd this content is offered as a concentration to complement the core MEd curriculum. This content is also offered as a stand-alone graduate certificate to meet the needs of teachers seeking further instruction in specialized or new areas of teaching.

What is the policy for transfer credits?
A maximum of six credits of graduate coursework may be transferred from other accredited institutions of higher education and/or non-matriculated graduate credits earned from the University of the Arts into the MEd degree upon approval of the Program Director. A total of three credits may be applied toward the graduate certificate requirements upon approval of the Program Director. Please visit cs.uarts.edu/MEd for more information about transfer credits.

Do the MEd and/or graduate certificate programs lead to teaching certification?
These programs do not lead to Pennsylvania Department of Education state certification for entry into public schools. These programs are designed for K-12 in-service teachers.

May I apply to the MEd even though I am not currently working in a classroom?
The program is designed for in-service teachers currently working in the classroom. The program does not grant certification for new teachers seeking to enter the profession. If you already have teaching certification and have taught previously in K-12 classrooms, you may apply even if you are not presently working in the classroom.

How much does this program cost?
The cost per credit for all courses in the MEd or graduate certificate programs is $630 for the 2013-2014 academic year (June 2013 – June 2014).

Is financial aid available?
Federal financial aid is not available for these programs but the University will offer payment plans for students beginning in the Fall 2013 semester. Please visit cs.uarts.edu/MEd for more information about payment plans.

Core Courses

Assessment Design + Evaluation

CORE requirement – Required first course for MEd in Educational Program Design

This course focuses on developing participants’ understanding of the end goals of the educational experience students receive in the classroom; capability to enhance instruction and learning through appropriate student assessments; and ability to provide useful feedback on educational programming. Utilizing the concept of authentic assessment (or “cornerstone” assessments as per Wiggins and McTighe in Schooling by Design, 2007), participants transform the process of teaching and learning into measurable outcomes achievable by all students. Particular attention is paid to: (1) the varied types of assessment necessary for an educational program including formative, summative, diagnostic, and benchmark, (2) the current environment of educational assessment, (3) assessment for project-based learning, (4) assessment instruments and their design, (5) the utilization of assessment data to improve student learning, and (6) the inter-relatedness of curriculum, instruction and assessment in the teaching and learning process. Educators develop an understanding of the different types of assessment and how they fit into a comprehensive system of curriculum, instruction, and assessment. Participants are able to construct a variety of assessments and assessment items to align with classroom instructional objectives. The effective use of data to make informed decisions about curriculum, instruction, and future assessment is discussed. (Open to Educational Program Design majors only)

Art Integration

Foundations of Integrating the Arts into the Classroom
Recommended first course for The Arts Concentration/Certificate (VPAS)

Brain based research indicates that integrating arts learning into the curriculum assists learners in the full acquisition of new knowledge. This course builds on educators existing knowledge base in the arts and teaches them to apply current research techniques and strategies to the development and implementation of their arts curricula. Educators study the research about arts learning and how it can increase the likelihood that students will acquire a deeper understanding of content and develop higher retention levels.

3-D Projects for the Classroom: Glass Sampler
Explore general fiber techniques and fabric processes, including weaving, stamp printing, dyeing and basic construction as an introduction to working with these materials. With demonstrations, discussions and hands-on projects, learn vocabulary and process of working with this media and the technical requirements and considerations to bring these approaches into the curriculum. Content is applicable to K-12 classrooms, particularly to expand knowledge of 3-D concepts with students. Open to all teachers with interest in fibers, no previous fiber experience required.

Visual Storytelling Techniques for Educators
Consider narrative concepts as conveyed or enhanced through visual images. Using primarily museum and art history resources, as well as selected children’s books, participants consider how images convey meaning themselves or are used in conjunction with text to tell stories. Look at the works of illustrators such as Maurice Sendak, Eric Carle, Faith Ringgold and Beatrix Potter to discuss the relationship of image with text. Study works by artists Henri Matisse, Edward Hopper, Henri Rousseau, Romare Bearden and Jacob Lawrence, whose work contains strong narrative elements to explore how images alone can convey a story. Discover studio projects, presentations and hands-on exercises that can be replicated directly to help students increase their visual literacy skills and enhance learning. Designed primarily for K-8 educators.

Soundtree + TI:ME
We are pleased to partner with SoundTree and TI:ME to serve the needs of music educators using technology. SoundTree specializes in learning systems for education that integrate electronic music instruments, audio and video tools and software. The curriculum of these online courses includes live lectures, assignments and threaded discussion boards. The courses are part of the certificate requirements for the Technology Institute for Music Educators (TI:ME), a Pennsylvania nonprofit organization whose mission is to assist music educators in applying technology to improve teaching and learning in music. TI:ME offers sequenced music technology courses designed for educators, leading to a TI:ME certificate upon completion. Courses are primarily asynchronous to be completed on your schedule; however, some content will take place at specific times for participants to log-in and enjoy together. Visit our website for details at: cs.uarts.edu/pie/soundtree
TI:ME 1A Basic Skills in Music Technology
This course imparts practical skills and knowledge to in-service music teachers to allow them to integrate technology effectively into teaching and learning. Covering basic skills in music notation software, music production software and use of electronic musical instruments, participants learn the basics of MIDI theory and notation and explore many ways to incorporate these tools into the curriculum. Participants gain the necessary knowledge to make critical judgments about the appropriateness of selected music hardware and software for particular educational applications. This course fulfills the first half of the TI:ME Level 1 certification requirement.

TI:ME 1B Music Technology — Software, Communications + Digital Media
Participants explore instructional software, configuring and using computers on networks and the Internet and the basics of using digital media in K-12 music education. Consider many ways to incorporate these digital tools into the music curriculum to serve a range of students. This course imparts practical skills and knowledge to in-service music teachers allowing them to integrate technology effectively into teaching and learning. This course fulfills the second half of the TI:ME Level 1 certification requirement.

ONLINE 4 weeks

Act 48 Returns July 1

The moratorium giving Pennsylvania-certified teachers an extension on Act 48 requirements expires on June 30, 2013. Teachers will return to a five-year cycle to complete this requirement.

To learn more about the differences between matriculated and non-matriculated course options, see page 5.
Arts Week 2013

ArtsWeek is for teachers across subject areas who are interested in developing innovative, creative approaches to education based on intensive work with art-specific content.

During ArtsWeek, each course provides a rich, engaging studio experience within a specific discipline. Participants complete a final project and lesson plan reflecting the new skills and approaches learned as applied to classroom teaching and student learning. Educators also participate in a final reception and exhibition of ArtsWeek work with their colleagues.

ArtsWeek 2013 is offered at three locations:
- Wayne Art Center
- GoggleWorks Center for the Arts
- The University of the Arts

Supplies are the responsibility of the student; some shared classroom supplies and equipment may be provided. Supply lists are available online prior to the start of classes.

Visit us online at cs.uarts.edu/pie/artsweek for location, travel and accommodations for each ArtsWeek location.

ArtsWeek: The Wayne Art Center

June 24 – 28, 2013 in Wayne, PA

Located on the Main Line in Philadelphia’s western suburbs, the Wayne Art Center offers large light-filled studios and galleries in a comfortable suburban setting. The Professional Institute for Educators is proud to partner with this community art center to serve teachers in this region, as well as those eager to visit this area.

3-D Projects for the Classroom: Ceramics — Throwing, Introductory

This course explores both traditional and experimental throwing techniques to make functional and sculptural pots. Develop a repertoire of skills, improve competency thinking and working three-dimensionally and incorporate new methods to encourage craftsmanship and conceptual skills in students. Focus on the potential of the potter’s wheel as a tool for expression. This course provides an opportunity for personal invention and exploration in developing sound skills to take back to the classroom. Learn throwing techniques with stoneware clays. In addition, discover finishes experimenting with colored slips, under glazes, oxides, shop glazes and firing techniques.

3-D Projects for the Classroom: Ceramics — Throwing, Advanced

With further refinement and exploration, develop advanced throwing skills with stoneware clays. Use both traditional and experimental throwing techniques to make functional and sculptural pots. In addition, expand knowledge of firing techniques and finishes with colored slips, glazes and oxides. This course provides an opportunity for personal invention, higher-level challenges and advanced critique. Improve competency in thinking and working three-dimensionally to bring these skills into the classroom. Prerequisite: (VPAS 510) 3-D Projects for the Classroom: Ceramics – Throwing, Introductory

3-D Projects for the Classroom:
Jewelry — Metal Clay, Introductory
Metal clay is an amazing material that is well adapted to classroom use. It is metallic clay made of either pure silver or bronze, which molds and handles like putty, fires in a kiln and becomes solid permanent silver. This material is unique, safe and non-toxic and requires only simple tools and equipment that students of all ages can easily use. In this course, work with various forms in both silver and bronze to produce basic jewelry or small sculptural objects, covering topics such as wet and dry fabrication, firing times and temperatures, use of the kiln and alternative firing methods. Topics may include projects for students, simple tool making and rubber molding, other basic jewelry techniques and use of metal elements and alloys in jewelry. Course content is designed for application in art classrooms.

Printmaking for the Classroom:
Monoprinting, Introductory
This class addresses image making through basic printmaking media such as relief, monoprinting and collographs. Create images by drawing/painting directly on the plate or by working from a sketch. The creative process is analyzed at every point. Techniques covered include printing with water-based inks and multiple colors as well as working with non-traditional presses that can be used in a variety of classroom settings.

3-D Projects for the Classroom:
Jewelry — Metal Clay, Advanced
In this course, work with metal clay in both silver and bronze to produce jewelry or small sculptural objects, covering more complex topics and techniques including applications of metal clay in combination with other materials, consideration of jewelry techniques and use of metal elements and alloys. Course content is designed for application in art classrooms and for those with previous metal clay experience. Prerequisite: (VPAS 520) 3-D Projects for the Classroom: Jewelry — Metal Clay, Introductory

Visual Arts for the Classroom: Drawing + Painting, Introductory

Drawing and painting are foundational skills for visual literacy and for developing an understanding of form, composition, light and color. Working from direct observation, including some figure models, participants improve perception and technical skills, working both in drawing media and in paint. Create a range of timed pieces in basic drawing media such as charcoal, pencil, ink and conte crayon, then move on to more advanced work using acrylic paints. This course considers color theory, composition, painting technique and the overall process.

July 15 – 19, 2013 in Reading, PA

The GoggleWorks Center for the Arts is a premiere community art and cultural resource center for Berks County as well as central and southeastern Pennsylvania. GoggleWorks is the largest, most comprehensive interactive arts center of its kind in the country.

GoggleWorks is a prime example of adaptive reuse in architecture and derives its name from the original structure from which it evolved. A former goggle factory, GoggleWorks is an industrial complex of six buildings transformed into galleries, studios, classrooms, a wood shop, a photography classroom with darkroom, a glassblowing facility and a ceramics studio. The space also holds a film theater, café, gift shop and offices for 26 community arts organizations.

3-D Projects for the Classroom: Glass Fusing + Slumping, Introductory
Explore an overview of basic glass techniques as an introduction to this material. Hands-on projects include fusing and slumping (bending), framework and basic casting. Those new to glass discover the technical aspects of working in both the hot and cold shops and discuss types of glass to use, the compatibilities of glass, annealing schedules and using sheet glass with powdered frit. Content applicable to K-12 classrooms, particularly to expand knowledge of 3-D concepts. Open to all teachers with interest in glass, no previous experience required.

Printmaking for the Classroom: Book Structures, Introductory
Participants in this course are introduced to a variety of contemporary book structures to which writing and imagery can be added. This includes accordion variations, sewn books, flexagons and pop-ups. Projects and discussions include approaches to incorporate images with simple text to convey meaning within various types of books. Collaborative book projects for classroom use and the opportunity to create a personal book are developed. Classroom applications for all grade levels are addressed; projects are adaptable for K-12 students in many subject areas.

ArtsWeek: The University of the Arts

August 5 – 9, 2013 in Philadelphia, PA

At the University of the Arts, creativity in all its forms overlaps and converges. UArts is the first and only university in the United States solely dedicated to educating creative individuals in the visual, performing and communication arts. We believe in the creative process as a transformative force for society.

Our campus in Center City Philadelphia stretches along the Avenue of the Arts from Walnut Street to South Street. Philadelphia is overflowing with stories to tell, scenes to capture, people to meet, museums to explore, restaurants to sample and performances to ponder. This city offers a distinctive blend of old and new. History, technology and artistic creativity mingle on city corners. Philadelphia is home to an astounding collection of museums, artistic venues and historical attractions.

3-D Projects for the Classroom: Ceramic Tile + Mosaics, Introductory Create large and small-scale ceramic mosaic constructions through the use of line drawings, freehand sketches, slide transfers or with computer assistance. Learn techniques such as plaster mold castings for tile replication opportunities, the use of plastic patterns or one-of-a-kind fabrications. Mounting and hanging are covered as well. Content open to all teachers with an interest in producing tiles; application to classroom use is considered.

Integrating Design Fundamentals — Projects for the Classroom
This course presents a step-by-step approach to understanding what causes one to look at a painting, photograph or any 2-D media and what is needed to maintain visual interest. This method applies aspects of line, shape, value and color directly to moving the viewer’s eye to and through a composition. With studio projects and hands-on exercises reinforcing concepts, vocabulary and visual organization, participants strengthen their own design thinking skills and develop new methods to convey and explain design to students. Applicable to the fine arts, applied arts and digital media, this course provides a simple and comprehensive methodology through which artists can create dynamic art.

Foundations of Museum + Primary Sources in Education
Recommended first course for Museum + Primary Sources Concentration/Certificate (PRES)

What can students learn from museums, artifacts and primary sources? This course enables educators to gain a broad understanding of using these sources to guide inquiry-based learning to discover inspiration for developing K-12 curricula. Consider museum typologies and programming using five diverse contexts through which the possibilities of museum resources will be explored: perceptual, autobiographical, cultural, interdisciplinary and institutional. Projects include researching and evaluating museum web pages, writing a reflection paper, primary source analysis, developing lesson plans, studio art activities and a field trip to a local museum.

Exploring the Barnes Foundation — Projects for the Classroom
Celebrated for its exceptional breadth, depth and quality, the Barnes Foundation’s art collection, now in its Parkway location, includes works by some of the greatest European and American masters of impressionism, post-impressionist and early modern art, as well as African sculpture, Pennsylvania German decorative arts, Native American textiles, metalwork and more. In addition to understanding these works within a historical and cultural context, the class considers the “wall ensembles” approach of Dr. Barnes, the intentional combination of works from different time periods, geographic areas and styles for the purpose of aesthetic comparison and study. With featured speakers, lectures and demonstrations, participants create and develop a series of activities and lesson plans designed for classroom application into a range of subject areas and grade levels using the arts to enrich learning for all students.

Paris + Japan — Influences on Modern Art + Impressionism
The wave of Japanese woodblock prints that flooded into Paris in the 19th century brought new ways of seeing to Western art. This course examines the profound aspects of the Japanese influence on European art through the study of master artists and their techniques in both cultures. Key figures such as Hiroshige, Utamaro, Sesshu and Hokasai are considered for their contributions to the work of Monet, Cassatt, Degas, Manet, Van Gogh, Gauguin and Toulouse-Lautrec. The extensive Asian and French 19th century collections at the Philadelphia Museum of Art serve as a central means of study. Course content applies to a range of subject areas, including visual arts, history, multicultural studies and the humanities at all grade levels. A visit to the Shofuso Japanese Teahouse in Fairmount Park is planned.

VAST
Visual Arts as a Source for Teaching at the Philadelphia Museum of Art

VAST at the PMA — The Art of Story
Each summer the Philadelphia Museum of Art’s Division of Education offers K-12 teachers the chance to renew their spirit of inquiry through VAST: Visual Arts as a Source for Teaching. This program allows teachers to immerse themselves in the museum’s collections and its use as a resource in the classroom, with themes changing each summer. The collections serve as the starting point for lively experiences that stress an interdisciplinary and multicultural approach in looking at and teaching from works of art. Participants take part in lectures, demonstrations, small group discussions, behind-the-scenes meetings with museum curators, writing workshops and field trips to build skills and strategies for teaching humanities-based curriculum.

This summer, the theme is “The Art of Story.” Works of art often tell stories. The image or object artists create may relate a myth, a religious story, a historical event, a well-known fable or tale, or a story of their own invention. In turn, viewers weave stories as we look at and respond to works of art. Explore the Museum’s collections and special exhibitions, including Witness: The Art of Jerry Pinkney to discover the many ways stories can be told through art as well as the variety of ways adults and students can respond through art and writing. Sessions will be led by Museum Educators and invited speakers and artists (including education staff from the Arden Theater Company). Off-site visits will include the newly reopened Rodin Museum. Teachers will be grouped into elementary, middle school and high school teams to facilitate meaningful discussion and brainstorming of curricular connections. All VAST participants will receive a resource guide with background information on artworks, discussion questions, a resource list and writing connections to bring back to the classroom.

The Professional Institute for Educators is pleased to partner with the Philadelphia Museum of Art to provide the opportunity to earn credit as part of this program. Teachers must first apply and be accepted into VAST by the PMA. A program fee is paid directly to the museum. To apply, contact the PMA Ticket Center at 215.235.7469. Questions should be directed to Barbara Bassett, Curator of Education at 215.684.7587.

Upon acceptance by the Museum, participants may then register for credit by contacting PIE at 215.717.6006.

Teaching with Primary Sources

FREE COURSES FOR NON-CREDIT! NO COURSE FEES!

Seeing the past clearly reveals new possibilities.

The Teaching with Primary Sources (TPS) program at UArts gives classroom topics a deeper, richer meaning for your students. We show teachers with vision how to make that happen.

Funded by a grant from the Library of Congress, the TPS program at the University of the Arts creates professional development opportunities for K-12 educators that focus on teaching with primary sources in an arts context to enhance cross-curricular areas in primary and middle schools. The mission of the TPS-UArts program is to: build awareness of the Library’s educational initiatives, provide content that promotes the effective educational use of the Library’s resources and offer access to and promote sustained use of the Library’s educational resources.

This summer, we offer five courses that use an artistic lens to expand the use of primary sources in the classroom. Non-credit course registration is free, and there are no course fees. Register early — space is limited.

Music: Discovering the Roots of American Music to Enhance the Curriculum
Featuring live music, hands-on activities and engaging exercises to use with students, this course focuses on the use of the digital archives of the Library of Congress to effectively and thoroughly plan, prepare and design lessons incorporating 20th century American music, particularly jazz and its influences, into the curriculum. Beginning with the digital archives, develop the ability to access musical resources to provide a multi-sensory approach to teaching historical content through a creative arts perspective. Participants are engaged in the exploration and appreciation of jazz music and the significance of jazz in American history and society — from tradition to innovation. K-8 teachers design a unit of study relevant to their interests and current classroom curricula, creating musical connections to American history and culture to enhance student learning.

Photography: Who Are We? — Constructing Identity Through Images
Photography has always been a democratic medium and virtually anyone can make a photograph, but learning how to read images and understand what they tell us about ourselves and others is often overlooked. Participants learn how to use the digital archives of the Library of Congress to prepare lessons for the classroom that incorporate concepts of visual literacy. Participants examine how photography influences identity and how it can be used as a teaching tool in grades K-12. Course activities include field trips for an insider’s look into local archives and museums and hands-on photographic projects. Content is appropriate for a range of subject areas as connections to social science, identity, expression and literacy are explored.

Poetry: A Place for the Poem — An Introduction to Poetry for Teachers

Poetry is a living art that brings expression, imagery, sound, rhythm and meaning together. This course is designed for K-8 teachers who want to develop lessons that show how poetry enhances literacy, supported by the digital archives of the Library of Congress. This course approaches poetry from the writer’s point of view and brings a new level of engagement for teachers to share with their students. With readings, exercises, writing assignments and discussion, participants explore the basics of how poems are made and have the opportunity to write poems themselves. Teachers look closely at choices made in particular poems: sound elements, line possibilities, formal options, image patterns and metaphor. Explore a number of contemporary poems that are short, clear and full of the world, using the text Poetry 180, by Billy Collins.

Theater: Bringing Primary Sources to Life Through Drama

Use primary sources from American theater history to prepare lessons that incorporate dramatic skits and activities into social studies, language arts and history curriculum. Participants identify primary sources from the digital archives of the Library of Congress that are relevant to State Standards and apply these into drama-based lessons for students. With a featured performance at the Walnut Street Theatre, behind-the-scenes tours and unique experiences, teachers learn how to engage students in new ways to understand active storytelling using research.

Foundations of Inclusionary Practices in the Classroom
Recommended first course for Inclusion Concentration/Certificate (INCL)

Student diversity is one of the main characteristics that defines today’s classroom. This course helps educators build the capacity to understand, honor and support the ever-increasing diversity of educational needs within classrooms. Recommendations are provided to enable teachers to augment their existing practices by infusing inclusive practices into existing content and curricula. Roles and responsibilities of general and special educators are explored to help facilitate collaboration in serving the needs of students and to make meaningful contributions to the identification, evaluation, re-evaluation, teaching and monitoring of progress of all students. Participants identify potential barriers to learning across curriculum areas in the general education classroom and identify strategies and services to eliminate those barriers.

Creating Multicultural Environments in the Classroom
This course assists K-12 educators in recognizing the importance of affirming the cultural identities of students and helping them to respect cultural differences in others. Participants develop resources, tools and methods to increase cultural awareness in the classroom across the curriculum. Activities encourage students to understand and honor diversity, both in their schools and in the larger community. This course focuses on methods to weave tolerance and understanding into existing curricular units and lesson plans.

Differentiated Instruction
Not all students are alike. Differentiated instruction is an approach to teaching and learning that deals with diversity in learning styles. Discover helpful, well-tested techniques for the creation of an inclusionary classroom for students — from English language learners and special education students to those with various learning difficulties or successes — to reach all learners effectively. Explore and research concepts, strategies and processes for managing a differentiated instructional setting with accommodations for learning and assessment. This course focuses on the key knowledge and skills needed to employ differentiated instruction and to address student differences across the curriculum, especially in literacy and mathematics.

Gifted Education in Inclusive Classrooms
Explore techniques to improve instruction to all students in advanced programs and bring gifted education pedagogy into regular classrooms more effectively. Ideas from Renzulli to Bloom to Torrance are discussed and demonstrated while participants investigate information on gifted research, gifted program models and gifted curriculum programming. Many school services for gifted and talented students are part-time opportunities beyond the regular classroom. In this class, consider methods to provide more occasions to enhance learning opportunities within the regular classroom for these students. This course also looks at the theory that gifted education can address not only the needs of children who already manifest high levels of various kinds of intelligence, but may also promote the emergence and development of talent and intelligence in children who have potentials but may not have had the opportunity to develop them.

Foundations of Literacy in the Classroom
Recommended first course for Literacy Concentration/Certificate (LITY)

Literacy is the foundation for student achievement regardless of the subject matter. This course provides K-8 educators with tools and strategies needed to teach the foundational skills of reading, writing, speaking, listening and language using best instructional practices, differentiated instruction and formative/substantive assessment. Curriculum design and classroom organization to optimize learned best practice are examined. Each participant contributes to the group’s learning by researching teaching skills in one of the five foundational areas and presenting that research to the class. Participants then practice teaching skills from each foundational area in both small group and individual mock scenarios and develop lesson plans and classroom design models that enhance instruction and learning.

Foundations of Educational Technology
Recommended first course for Educational Technology Concentration/Certificate (ETEC)

Are you connecting with the digital learners of today? Are you utilizing the classroom technology available to you? This course introduces topics, theories, and principles in educational technology. It emphasizes the use of technology in the classroom as an “instructional tool” to enrich the quality of your teaching and enhance learning. This course includes the use of a variety of educational technology tools as well as discussions about internet safety, ethics, and copyright concerns. You will leave this course with knowledge about how to create an engaging lesson incorporating the use of technology and will successfully be able to implement web resources in your classroom to enhance instruction. You will learn techniques to effectively improve your classroom through the use of a variety of online tools and assessments and learn about technology that can be used to differentiate instruction to accommodate students with different learning styles. Develop skills that will ease you and your classroom into a 21st century technology learning environment.

This brochure is not a contractual document. The University of the Arts reserves the right to change any curricular offering, policy, faculty assignment or financial regulation described in this brochure. The University of the Arts gives equal consideration to all applicants for admission and scholarships, and conducts all educational programs, activities, and employment practices without regard to race, color, sex, religion, national or ethnic origin, or disability.

General Policies

Educators taking courses for credit are required to complete assignments for evaluation outside of direct contact hours. These assignments may include lesson plans, readings, papers, projects, presentations or other work relating the course content to classroom application. Most final course projects will be due two weeks after the final class meeting.

Student Code of Conduct
The University reserves the right to deny registration to any student based upon the student’s prior behavior or actions in a previous class, program or workshop at the University.

Additionally, any current student may be dismissed from his/her class and the program if found to be disruptive or behaving inappropriately in class or on the University campus. Students dismissed from any UArts Continuing Studies program will be denied admission to future terms and programs.

Students in the Division of Continuing Studies at the University of the Arts are expected to adhere to a Student Code of Conduct, available on our website.

Teacher Professional Development
PA Act 48: We are an approved provider for the Pennsylvania Department of Education Act 48 professional development requirements. A three-credit graduate course is posted as Act 48 90-hour equivalency. Students must supply their Act 48 Professional Personal ID number and submit an Act 48 request form (provided in class) in order to have their credit course posted. Students should log in to the PA Department of Education website (pde.state.pa.us) to obtain this ID number. Act 48 posting to the State occurs at the end of the month in which final grading for coursework is complete.

NJ: We are an approved provider for New Jersey Professional Development (provider #4700). New Jersey teachers should follow the administrative policies of their school district.
Academic Honesty/Integrity Policy
Violations of academic integrity are considered to be acts of academic dishonesty and include (but are not limited to) cheating, plagiarizing, fabrication, denying others access to information or material and facilitating academic dishonesty, and are subject to disciplinary action (please visit cs.uarts.edu/pie/policies#Academic_Honesty_Integrity_Policy to review this policy in its entirety).

Attendance
All students are expected to attend classes regularly and promptly and for the duration of the scheduled instructional time. Individual instructors may penalize for habitual lateness or absence. Repeated absences may result in a grade of “F” for a course.

Students who withdraw from a course must do so in writing. Non-attendance does not constitute an official withdrawal.

Course Cancellation
The University of the Arts reserves the right to cancel classes due to low enrollment. If a cancellation should occur, students will be notified prior to the start of classes and will have the option of taking another course or receiving a full refund.

Grading
Professional Institute for Educators students may obtain their final course grades online through WebAdvisor, MyUArtsRecord. Grades will be available online one week after the submission of the final course project.

Grade of Incomplete (“I”)
An incomplete grade may be granted only in extraordinary circumstances, either personal or academic, that prevent the student from completing coursework by the end of the semester. The grade “I” is given only when the completed portion of the student’s coursework is of a passing quality. To receive the grade of Incomplete, the student must submit the Incomplete Form and obtain written approval from the course instructor and the Dean of Continuing Studies prior to the conclusion of the semester.

Incomplete grades not cleared by the end of the sixth week of the following semester will be automatically assigned the grade of “F.”

Incomplete Forms are available at registrar.uarts.edu or in person at the Office of the Registrar.

Transcript Requests
The University Registrar produces transcripts for all graduate and undergraduate programs including the Professional Institute for Educators. In order to process a transcript request, the student’s account must be in good financial standing. Transcript requests can be made online, in person and by mail. The cost for normal service is $5; additional fees apply for fax, emergency, FedEx and international service. Full details are available online at registrar.uarts.edu/services/transcript-request.

Online + Hybrid Courses
Online and hybrid courses have the same learning objectives and use the same faculty and curriculum as our traditional classroom courses, with the added convenience of having 24/7 access to course materials and the ability to work at one’s own pace any time of day. Students wishing to enroll in online and hybrid courses must meet the following minimum requirements:

- Access to a computer with a web browser, Microsoft Office or equivalent and Adobe Acrobat Reader.
- High speed Internet access.
- Comfort working on computers, including saving, deleting and moving files.
- Ability to install software, as needed.

Students in online and hybrid courses are required to participate in frequent discussions and complete all projects and assignments indicated in the syllabus. Students will receive an invitation to join the online classroom one week prior to the start of class. Students must use their assigned UArts email address to access the University’s online course management system.
To learn more about the differences between matriculated and non-matriculated course options, see page 5.

Supplies
Supplies are the responsibility of the student. Supply lists specific to each class are included in the syllabi available online one week prior to the start of classes.

Center City Parking
Students attending courses within the Professional Institute for Educators at the main UArts location in Center City are eligible for a special free parking voucher to cover the costs of parking during class meeting times. Students must park at the LAZ garage in the Symphony House building, located at Broad and Pine Streets. Please see our website for more details.

School Closings
In the event of inclement weather, University officials make every attempt to render a prompt decision about whether classes will be cancelled. This information is communicated throughout campus, on our website and to local media. Students can also sign up for UArts Emergency Alerts to be sent directly to their mobile phone by logging in to the UArts Portal and following instructions.

Off-site Locations
Details about each of our off-site locations, including directions, can be found on our website at cs.uarts.edu/campus-map-directions/locations.

Policies for Non-Matriculated Students

Non-matriculated students include: students who have their bachelor’s degree and are taking additional course work in preparation for applying to a graduate program; students interested in applying graduate credits towards Masters Equivalency Programs; students taking graduate coursework to fulfill PA-certified teachers professional development requirements; and students who wish to remain non-degree seeking but are interested in enrolling in course work for personal fulfillment. Non-matriculated coursework is designated by an “NM” in the course number (ex. ETEC 500NM). Non-matriculated students may also register for courses with an “ED” pre-fix. “ED” courses serve strictly as professional development opportunities which earn the student graduate credits but cannot be applied toward a matriculated degree or certificate program at the University of the Arts.

Registration
Non-matriculated students are permitted to register by fax, mail, in person and online via cs.uarts.edu/pie; we also accept registration by phone. To register, you must submit the completed registration form with payment in full (check or money order payable to: The University of the Arts) or a nonrefundable deposit of $50 per course. Deposits are accepted by phone and by using the registration form in this brochure, which can be submitted by fax, mail or in person; the deposit option is currently unavailable online. Students registering with a deposit must pay by credit card and include any fees mentioned in the course description at the time of registration. American Express, MasterCard and VISA are accepted. Students must sign the appropriate line on the registration form indicating approval to charge the remaining balance 21 days prior to the start of class. Students registering 21 days or less prior to the start of class must pay in full. Checks are only accepted for payment in full. Registration is accepted on a first come, first served basis. Students will receive registration confirmations and receipts via email.

Tuition + Fees

Tuition
Tuition rates for courses within the Professional Institute for Educators at the University of the Arts are listed next to each course. Specialized intensive courses, partnership courses and those with fewer credits may have a customized tuition rate. Courses in the PIE program are offered for credit only; with the exception of non-credit and tuition-free courses offered by the Teaching with Primary Sources-UArts Program, funded by the Library of Congress.

Note: Online courses are not for everyone. If you are undecided about whether this format works well with your particular learning style, please contact our office to speak with an advisor.
Fees
Course fees vary by class and are applied to specific operational costs incurred in certain classes, studios or labs. Payment of fees assigned to courses is required at the time of registration and is nonrefundable.

Refund Policy for Non-Matriculated Students
NOTE: Courses designated by either an “NM” or “ED” are available for registration by non-matriculated students.

All refunds are less nonrefundable deposits and course fees and are calculated as follows:

- 100% refund less the $50 nonrefundable application fee for withdrawal five business days prior to the first class
- 0% refund for withdrawal less than five business days prior to the first day of class

All withdrawals must be submitted in writing via email to cs@uarts.edu. The date the request is received in writing is the date used to calculate the refund amount. Please allow up to 10 business days for review.

It is not our policy to transfer registration from one course to another. Requests of this nature will be processed as a withdrawal, subject to the refund policy above.

The Professional Institute for Educators strongly encourages students to seek pre-approval from their school district before registering for courses. Refunds will not be granted to students who request withdrawal because their school district denies approval for tuition reimbursement.

Tuition Discounts
The Professional Institute for Educators offers discounts to UA rats alumni and educators teaching within the School District of Philadelphia who enroll as non-matriculated students in our courses.

Only one tuition discount or scholarship may be applied to a student’s account per semester. Scholarships cannot be combined with any other discounts and cannot be applied retroactively to any previous course registrations on record. Discounts must be calculated and reflected in payment at the time of registration; no refunds will be issued retroactively to correct overpayment.

Alumni Discount – Now 25%!
Graduates of the University of the Arts, Philadelphia College of Art and Design or the Philadelphia College of Performing Arts are entitled to a 25% discount on tuition only.

Note: Alumni discounts are only recognized with online registration if you have previously registered online for a class using an alumni discount.

School District of Philadelphia Scholarship
A scholarship is available for educators currently teaching for the School District of Philadelphia. This scholarship of $250 is applicable towards tuition only for three-credit courses offered within the Professional Institute for Educators.

Scholarships cannot be combined with any other discounts, cannot be applied retroactively to any previous course registrations on record and are only applicable to PIE courses offered between September 2012 and August 2013. Courses offered through the Villanova Summer Music Studies program are not eligible. Courses funded by the Library of Congress are also not eligible for this scholarship.

All recipients are required to submit current official proof of employment from the School District of Philadelphia, and this scholarship is not available for online registration.

Policies for Matriculated Students
Matriculated programs earn students an official credential in their chosen area of study from the University of the Arts. These programs require official application and acceptance before registration is permitted. Matriculated program options include the MEd in Educational Program Design (EDPD) and graduate certificates in the areas of Educational Technology (ETEC), Inclusion (INCL), Literacy (LITY), Museum + Primary Resources (PRES and UTPS), Technology Institute for Music Educators (MTEC) and The Arts (VPAS).
Registration
Matriculated students will receive a University of the Arts student account upon acceptance to the program which will permit them to register online for courses via Web Advisor, MyUArtsRecord. Additionally, matriculated students are permitted to submit registration in-person, fax, mail or phone by contacting the Professional Institute for Educators.

Tuition + Fees
Tuition
Tuition rates for matriculated MEd and/or graduate certificate courses within the Professional Institute for Educators at the University of the Arts are listed next to each course. Specialized intensive courses, partnership courses and those with fewer credits may have a customized tuition rate.

Fees
Course fees vary by class and are applied to specific operational costs incurred in certain classes, studios or labs. Payment of fees assigned to courses is nonrefundable.

Financial Aid + Payment Plans
Federal financial aid is not available for these programs, but beginning in the Fall 2013 semester, the University will offer payment plans for students in the MEd and graduate certificate programs. Please visit cs.uarts.edu/MEd for more details on payment plans.

Academic Advising
While all students are encouraged to schedule individual advising sessions with the staff of the Professional Institute for Educators, matriculated students are assigned an advisor; the student is required to meet with his/her advisor at least once each semester to discuss the student’s academic program.

Students have access to their academic records and staff advisors also have access to degree audits and transcripts for the students they advise following the recording of grades each semester. Advising is a shared responsibility between the department and the student. Each must remain informed about the student’s progress toward graduation.

Transfer Credits
A maximum of six credits of graduate coursework may be transferred from accredited institutions outside of the University and/or non-matriculated graduate credit earned from the University of the Arts toward the MEd in Educational Program Design.

A maximum of three credits of graduate coursework may be transferred from accredited institutions outside of the University and/or non-matriculated graduate credit earned from the University of the Arts toward graduate certificate programs offered by the Professional Institute for Educators. For more information, visit our website.

Refund Policy for Matriculated Students
All refunds are less nonrefundable registration and course fees.
